Project Management/ IT Development (m/f/d)
in the area of Artificial Intelligence and Search Engine

The NGO fragFINN is a search engine for children and therefore develops and maintains a „positive list“ of websites suitable for children, and is committed to positive youth media protection as well as strengthening children's media competence.

The aim of the project is to improve the quality of the surfing space, the search and the internet offer of fragFINN.de with the support of AI applications and thus to react to contemporary requirements as well as the needs of the young target group.

Your Tasks:

- Conceptual and organisational management of the entire project
- Partly independent software development according to the project implementation
- Main contact person for the technical service providers and their coordination
- Interface management between the project team and the service providers
- Public presentations and documentation of the project

Your Qualifications:

- A successfully completed university degree in computer science or business informatics or a similarly related course of study with a similarly relevant specialisation.
- Proven knowledge in software development
- Experience in project management and implementation
- Affinity for the topic of search engines and extraordinary interest in AI-based technology highly desirable
- Good self-organisation, flexibility, commitment and ability to work in a team
- Very good knowledge of English, written and spoken, good knowledge of the German language desirable
- Experience with content management systems such as WordPress and with federal project funding is desirable

We offer:

- An interesting, meaningful/ job with purpose (?) and varied job
- An open-minded team and pleasant working atmosphere
- Flat hierarchies and short decision-making processes
- A good balance between work and family life
- Proportionate mobile working possible by arrangement

- A workplace in Berlin Mitte with good public transport connections
- A large roof terrace with a view of the TV tower

The position is a full-time position (40h/week) and is limited to 2 years.
